

Letter of sharing of Efforts I've Made to drive change

11

Dear Sir/Madam

I hope you are doing well.

I have found a good chance in Freedom of speech and healthy Democratic Environment In USA to express My ideas and to discover How this ideas is Connected to the real world what could happen if I did My best to Call it become true and be part of the prospective of tomorrow.

- starting from the Top of My Crown fruit of interacting with Political debates and waves and expressing My thoughts and bases that drive that

- this effort now reached a very good point - when it is started was completely different and has been through a lot of challenges

☐ Chaos and who has driving it and Some of Mistakes which is usually happen when you discover New things Did really affect the shape I want it to My effort

what I stand for

2

Simplicity - Identity - Conservatism, being proud of who you are, in traditions and value that you have

- That you can express it freely and proudly, people if they like they can have it

- Being able to be a problem solver

- Being widely knowledgeable once we needed, in a few, can be quickly developed, ready to advance solutions to most of situations that you can challenge

Time to be open to make friends and share what I accomplish

- the progress of my efforts and hear your opinions about

- You are going to find in my blog what I stand for is our open door to know - interact see if I can give a hand of issues that others may have

Before you vote

Before making a decision

Faithful Blog
and Spiritual

- Blog  Fighting Corruption and Work Riot is My effort 3
- in solving Riot during work and Fighting Corruption
 - Development here is Good also
 - Human rights
- My humble effort in this field that has been developed and I learned a lot
- I'm not human rights activist, I came from Minority
- I'm immigrant - I was looking to be free - with No fears
- what I like for Myself what I can do to help the others
- Conservative Citizen
 - is what I'm now in My political opinions and I hope Conservative Movements will Grow. 50%
 - Book I made as it was My U turn in life where things become blessed Before you vote I
- it's nice to have friends from all parts of the world and see what we share.
- How we can make our thoughts Connected to real world and become true
 - How we can develop our abilities to solve problems help others and to share Good things we have.